About the Community Health Awards:

Each year, Callen-Lorde honors leaders and trailblazers that share our passionate commitment to improving the health and wellbeing of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender communities, and those affected by HIV/AIDS.

Past Community Health Awards recipients have included illustrious honorees including actress and health advocate Cynthia Nixon, former Surgeon General Joycelyn Elders, celebrated author and playwright Tony Kushner, tennis great Martina Navratilova, Congressman Jerrold Nadler, and law firm Paul, Weiss, Rifkind Wharton & Garrison LLP for their pro-bono work in the landmark case of Windsor vs. United States.

This year, we are proud to bestow Community Health Awards to:

New York City Councilmember Ritchie Torres - As the youngest member of the Council, and the only LGBT elected official from the Bronx, Councilmember Torres has played a vital role in bringing Callen-Lorde to the Bronx, in partnership with BOOM!Health. We will recognize his efforts to improve the lives of residents of the Bronx and across New York City through the historic commitments he's secured to improve public housing, improve working conditions for low-wage workers, and engage young people in the political process

Susan Somerville, RN, President, Mount Sinai Beth Israel - Through her leadership, Mount Sinai Beth Israel has demonstrated its commitment to meeting the special health care need of LGBTQ communities, with respect and compassion.

Physicians Research Network – An organization that for 25 years has been committed to improving the diagnosis, management and prevention of HIV and other viral diseases. We are excited to honor their dedication to providing education and support to healthcare providers who help care for those living with HIV/AIDS.

By sponsoring The Community Health Awards you take advantage of an opportunity to:

- Promote your philanthropy to 300 event attendees, 10,000+ monthly website visitors and growing email and social media lists
- Create name recognition for your business among high profile business, political and healthcare leaders
- Market your products and services to donors and supporters

In addition to these benefits, your support helps ensure that we can continue to provide our vital, life-saving programs and services to the most vulnerable members of our community.
